

1 Peter 2:13-17

Part 1 Sermon notes

Where are we at in this study? Previous section? New section?

What is the first word of this new section? Is that first word significant? Why?

Why should we submit? Does our culture struggle with this idea?

What is the historical context of this section of Scripture?

How should we respond to delegated authority?

What is the will of God? Why?

What does it mean to be free? How should we use our freedom?

What are our responsibilities as stated in Vs 17?

Part 2 Application thoughts

Application question to be filled out at a later time.

What can we learn from the disciples in Acts 4, 5?

What can we learn from Daniel and his friends?

Do you tend to submit when you shouldn't or rebel against authority?

Are you living obediently? Rebelliously? Independently?

Are you living as a bond servant?

How do you feel about God respecting your choices?

Have you taken time and allowed God to search you?
